

GDF SUEZ / STEPHANE DE BOURGIES - ABACAPRESS

Yves de Gaulle

General Secretary of GDF SUEZ
Born on September 1st, 1951.

University career

- Graduate of l'Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris and Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA) (member of the André Malraux graduating class)
- Degree in Economics

Professional career

- From 2005: member of the Group Executive Committee.
- From 2004: General Secretary and General Counsel of SUEZ.
- 2004: Magistrate at the Government Accounting Office. Joins the SUEZ Group as Assistant General Counsel.
- 1992: joins the AGF/Allianz Group, serves as Chairman and CEO of a group subsidiary in Spain, then Executive Vice President for International and member of the Executive Committee, and finally as Senior Executive Vice President of the Euler Group.
- 1989: Associate Director of the KPMG/FIDAL law firm, and then Partner in the Cabinet Jeantet law firm. Serves as Technical Advisor to the Minister in charge of Privatization and General Secretary of the Privatization Commission.
- 1977: begins his career at the French Ministry of Finance, serving among others in the French Treasury Department where he is bureau chief for Monetary and Credit Policy.